

HR BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Virtual Session

19th March 2023.
9am - 11:30am

The HR Business Outlook is designed to illuminate the path forward for HR professionals as we embark on a new year of challenges and opportunities. In this dynamic gathering, we dissect the evolving landscape of Human Resources, foster insightful discussions, share best practices, and chart the course for innovative HR strategies. We will explore the latest trends, tackle pressing issues, and envision a future where our collective efforts contribute not only to the success of our organizations but also to the well-being and professional growth of every individual. Get ready to engage in thought-provoking conversations, gain fresh perspectives, and leave inspired and equipped to lead HR initiatives that drive both organizational and employee excellence.

THE SESSION WILL COVER THE FOLLOWING:

- Reflection of the previous year
- Unpacking the current business environment and industry trends and implications on HR
- Looking Ahead: HR outlook for the new year and the future of work
- Assessing the critical role of HR in driving organizational success
- Highlight key HR accomplishments and contributions to overall business objectives
